

General Conditions of Participation in EARSC Events

With the registration, the following conditions are accepted:

1. Consent to the use of my personal data. Data Privacy Statement

When participating in an EARSC event you agree that your personal data collected during this registration may be stored and used for the organization and realization of this event. Your consent is mandatory for your participation.

Upon the end of the event, your data will be saved to a database to send you information regarding upcoming events.

You agree that employees of EARSC may have access to your data. Beyond that, your personal data will not be passed on to third parties without your explicit consent or a legal basis.

The above-mentioned declarations of consent may be revoked at any time for the future if and as long as the storage and the processing of your data are not mandatory for the organization of the event (section 28 para. 1 BDSG [German Federal Data Protection Act]). Moreover, you have a right to free information about your stored data and, if applicable, a right to the correction, blocking or deletion of such data. The responsible body to be contacted for this is:

EARSC
Rue de la Loi 26, 1040 Bruxelles
E-Mail: info@earsc.org

2. Image rights

The video of the event will be recorded and will be available for the participants of the event and the general public. By attending the event you expressly accept the recording, the use and the broadcasting of the recorded material, including your image. Parts of the recordings of the event may be used for EARSC outreach purposes.

3. Active participation

Participation in the event involves a presentation or talking in front of the attendees of the event. The guest speakers will be contacted by EARSC to be informed about the presentation requirements and the technical details. Also, potential participants might be contacted by EARSC as a follow up to their comments/questions during the event.
